STYLE No. 2566—A high bust, long line model for tall average figures. It will give the long and sinuous lines at present in vogue and will positively efface all unseemly curves at the hips, back and abdomen. Bust can be tightened or loosened at will by an arrangement of ribbon drawstrings attractively attached. The material is a dainty imported batiste, with pink or blue flowers, and the corset is attractively trimmed to match. Hose supporters attached to front and sides. Sizes 18 to 30. Price, $18.00.

LA VIDA, STYLE No. 2542—Is a strictly up-to-date model for average figures. The special feature of this corset is what is termed a "broken bust," i. e., at a point about two inches from the top of the corset at the bust line there is a break in the boning permitting the bust to be turned over, thus reducing the height above the waist line at will. The advantage of this construction makes this model especially adaptable for evening gowns, where extreme bust height is not required. It has the long straight effect hips. Material a durable, light weight batiste, suitably trimmed. Hose supporters at front and sides. Sizes 18 to 30. Price, $5.50.

STYLE No. 2568—An exceptional model for tall and well-developed figures, requiring a good height at the waist line. It is exceptionally long over abdomen and hips, producing those long, willowy lines decreed by Dame Fashion. The material is a durable fancy broche in white only, and attractively trimmed. Hose supporters at front and sides. Sizes 19 to 30. Price, $15.50.

STYLE No. 2565—A dainty corset, modeled on strictly up-to-date lines, with a high bust and coming well down over the hips, abdomen and back. It is so constructed that at a point two inches from the top of the corset the bust can be turned in, so as to make the garment suitable for low-cut gowns, where extreme bust height is not required. The hip, back and abdomen lines will give the long line effect. The material is a pretty embroidered silk batiste, with white, pink or blue flowers. Hose supporters at front and sides. Sizes 18 to 30. Price, $13.50.

REDUSO No. 774—Another of our famous Reduso Corsets for stout women. It is about one inch longer below the waist line, otherwise it is the same model as Reduso No. 770. The material is a slightly, almost indestructible, imported fabric, especially made for this model. It is trimmed with a satin ribbon binding, finished off by a full of lace. Three pairs of hose supporters attached. Sizes 19 to 36. Price, $5.00.

REDUSO, STYLE No. 770—The perfect corset for large women. Scientifically constructed, insuring perfect reduction of the over-developed parts from one to five inches, thus giving stout women the graceful lines of their more slender sisters. The material is durable white coutil. The bust is medium in height, with the necessary length over and around the hips. Hose supporters attached, four at front and two at sides. Sizes 19 to 36.
